ADMINISTRATION

DR. CALVERT N. ELLIS
PRESIDENT of the COLLEGE

Leader of the Juniata College Administration is President Calvert N. Ellis. Active in college life since 1943, when he became president, he serves on the Board of Trustees and supervises the administrative affairs of the college. As a lecturer and traveler, he brings to Juniata a wide range of experience and knowledge which he shares willingly with the students and faculty.

Available to all students for advice and information, President Ellis takes an active interest in all phases of campus life. His support of all college functions, athletic and social, contributes greatly to the closeness and cohesion of Juniata College.

President Ellis has given many years of faithful service to Juniata. He is a valued friend and administrator, and his presence on College Hill has meant much to the progress of the college.

MORLEY MAYS
DEAN of the COLLEGE

Supervisor of academic life is Dean of the College Morley Mays. His is the responsibility for handling the academic affairs of students and faculty. He carries out his duties with efficiency and an extra measure of ability.

Though much concerned with administration routine, Dean Mays is never too busy to welcome an individual student into his office. His counsel and advice are valued by many students, and his interest in college life, as well as college routine, is evinced in his willingness to give his time for special conferences.

An able administrative, a qualified professor and part-time member of the faculty, and a versatile individual, Dean Mays is a valuable member of the college community.

Juniata men know well their dean Paul M. Heberling. He is appreciated by the students for his ready willingness to counsel and to guide. The Dean finds time to teach courses in sociology and psychology in the midst of his varied schedule. This includes serving as an advisor to the Senate and Judiciary, and as Director of the Student Placement Bureau. Whether in the classroom, in his office, or on campus Dean Heberling is a friend of all students.

PAUL M. HEBERLING
DEAN of MEN

For four years the women of Juniata have had as their friend and counselor Dean Christine Yohe. As the Dean of Women, she serves on the Student Senate, Campus Judiciary and Women's Judicial Board. As a teacher, she lectures in Economics and Business Administration. As a member of the administration and the faculty Dean Yohe contributes greatly to Juniata College.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

President, George Klingman

SENATE

Secretary, Peggy Robinson

The Juniata College Student Senate has for many years been a bridge of communication between students, faculty, and administration. Comprised of four officers and nine chairmen, the Senate is an effective coordinator of student activities and provides solid campus leadership.

The Senate members are elected each spring, taking office on Move-Up Day. For one year these people devote their time and effort to insure the smooth operation of campus affairs. Not only are they concerned with present activities, but they plan for the future, paving the way for anticipated needs.

Under the leadership of George Klingman, the 1962-1963 Senate has many noteworthy accomplishments. Among these are bringing the Lettermen to campus, getting a breakdown of the college budget, increasing the use of leadership conference, bettering the quality of convocation programs, revamping the Intramural handbook, and improving communications between students, faculty and administration.

Vice-President, Bob Hueglin

Treasurer, John Nowell

ELECTED SENIORS: Ted Volinsky, Nancy Good, Bob Gardner.

JUDICIARY

In October, 1956, the student body and administration established the Campus Judiciary to implement non-academic rules. In its five years, the Judiciary has given Juniatians a means of self-discipline and self-government. The chairmanship is held by the Senate Vice-President. Under his direction all proceedings are conducted by a board of nine members: two elected students from the upper two classes, the chairmen of men's and women's student government, the deans of men and women, and a faculty member.

SOCIAL

The Social Committee provides us with formal and informal dances, J.C. night at the Kalso-Clifton Theater, and other social events! The chairman together with her assistants, acts, plans, and supervises these affairs.

This year the committee receives our special vote of thanks for raising the necessary funds that brought The Lettermen to our campus. Their imagination and willingness to work gave us many memorable evenings of entertainment.

Seated: Judy Carlton, Rod Jones, Lee Warner. Standing: Bob Bowers, Tuck Maxwell, Gary Smith.

This group serves to maintain discipline and order in the men's dorms. Although final authority in such matters is vested in the Dean of Men, this committee provides opportunity for students to shoulder some of the responsibility.

EDUCATION

Headed by the Chairman of Educational Activities, this committee made studies and evaluations of the academic machinery this year. A continuation of the Proctoring Bureau, and the Comprehensive examination study groups were among its activities. Special attention was paid to evaluating and making suggestions concerning the new method of scheduling finals. This committee is always a channel of communication between the student body and the Dean of the College.

Seated: Vince Valicenti, Dottie Horton, Mary Hicks, Sandy Isenberg, Linda Cassidy, Pam Stevens. Standing: Ron Ferrano, Duane Ruble, Dave Lee, Hal Yocum, Bob Hueglin, Rolfe Wenner, George Zeigler, Ken Marsh, Jess Wright, Ed Fleck.

This committee is most active in the fall when frosh discover their need for proper "guidance" in learning the ways of student life at Juniata. Freshmen are always anxious to help this group in all their proposed projects, such as Freshman Initiation, Frosh Help Day, Frosh Court, and the ever-popular Frosh Show. The Big Brother and Sister program was continued with success.

JUDICIAL BOARD

Headed by the Chairman of Women's Government, this board hears cases of violations of those rules that apply to the conduct of women resident students. It is concerned mainly with those violations dealing with infractions of curfew and dorm rules.

UNDERCLASS

ATHLETICS

Assuming the responsibility of organizing Intramural sports, the Athletic Committee finds itself with a year-round job. It can find ample satisfaction in the realization that it provides activities for one of the largest participating bodies on campus. This year saw a revision of the intramural handbook, expansion of leagues, and the presentation of awards. Good supervision and organization paid off in balanced competition and plenty of enthusiasm.

GEN. ACTIVITIES

This committee has the responsibility of Homecoming, May Day, and various campus activities. Parent's Day and the Spring Carnival are some of the other affairs planned and directed by this group.

WOMEN'S GOV'T.

Women's Government made great strides forward this year toward assuming more responsibility for their own discipline. This group acts in a supervisory capacity as hall proctors, as well as being a liaison between the women students and the Dean of Women.

RELIGION

This committee aids the student in one of the most important areas of his college life—religion. There is a great variety of religious denominations at Juniata, and meeting the needs of each is a big job. The continuation of work begun last year by the Religious Convocations Study Committee has resulted in the employment of a Minister of Students.

ACTIVITIES

"PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF JUNIATA COLLEGE"

The Juniatian is the weekly campus publication, with a circulation of 1750, run completely by students. The staff prepares a four-page paper published each Friday, informing students, faculty, alumni, and friends of College Hill happenings such as convocation speakers, campus events and productions in Oller Hall. In addition, the editorial page covers campus issues, student, national, and international commentaries and page three features the sports of the campus both intramural and interscholastic.

The Alfarata is the student published yearbook for JC, within its pages are recorded the memories of the College Hill year. For the seniors, it serves as the culmination of a four year stay, and for the underclassmen it serves as a yearly reminder of Juniata. For the staff, the completed Alfarata issue in May represents many hours of hard work, planning pages, assembling them and packing everything off to the publisher just before the deadline. The accomplishment of another Alfarata completed is well worth the effort of the staff to do it.

WJC

WJC, the campus radio station, operates afternoons and evenings Sunday through Friday. Broadcasting did not begin until late in the first semester due to the moving of the station to first Brumbaugh, and the installation of new turntables. Students raised money for improvements by selling subscriptions for the Philadelphia Inquirer. The station features many types of musical entertainment, as well as faculty and student interviews featuring campus issues, and the airing of the news of the day in five-minute spots.

VOICE

This newer campus publication came about through the desires of Juniata students to show their own campus literary talents. Students contributed all types of student literary achievements during the year for the magazine, published in the spring semester. The Voice has already become an important asset to the campus publication group.

Seated: Snookie Zeller. Standing: Bud Colflesh, Gary Smi.

OGRE COMMITTEE

This Senate appointed committee has the job of taking grievance recommendations of the students to the Administration and Senate for further review. The committee took a survey this year in the form of a general gripe sheet, which they presented to the Senators who handled their individual areas in which there were complaint.

INDIAN & TOMAHAWK

The Indian an Tomahawk, publications put out by the J-Club, are the official programs, for the football games. These handy publications provide information concerning each team's records, individual facts and pictures of the teams. Sold at every home football and basketball game by J-Club members, they provide a welcome aid to J.C. sports enthusiasts.

CIRCLE K

Seated: Tom Paxson, Barry Halbritter, Russ Bell.
Standing: Jeff Grove, Dave Rodenbaugh.

The Circle K Club was initiated last year as an Honorary service organization. The club is a subdivision of the Kiwanis International. Its goal of service is oriented toward church, community, and college life. One of the past accomplishments was playing a leading role in formation of Pennsylvania District Circle K International.

TAU EPSILON SIGMA

Tau Epsilon Sigma serves to recognize those students who maintain a good overall average while making a significant contribution to the extracurricular life of the campus. Members of this honor service club work together to foster pleasant relations with visiting personnel to our campus through ushering for Oller Hall activities, participating in Brethren Campus Day and helping at registration desks during special guest week-ends.

Seated: Harry Knisely, Shookie Zeller, Tuck Maxwell.
Standing: George Klingman, Rob Gardner, Jess Wright.

THE MASQUE

TYCOON CLUB

Seated: John Nowell, Wayne Barnes, Jim Fox, Debbie Evans. Standing: Larry Ross, Glenn Paris, Don Detwiler, Rich Andrews, Dave Kimes.

The aim of the Tycoon Club is to further the interest of its membership in current business conditions and job opportunities in the nation. This club of salesmen was also in charge of the selling aspect of the Lettermen program. In order to finance a three-day trip to New York, the club undertook several money-raising projects during the school year. This project, whose purpose was to study the economic and business world of that city, was the main goal of the organization for the past year.

BARRISTERS

The Barrister Club provides a focus on those activities which center about the fields of law and history. Each year the club attempts to bring to the campus several speakers who are acquainted with particular governmental problems. Frequently, the club presents films relating in detail to some historical incident, and when there is sufficient interest, plans appropriate field trips—usually to the nation's capital.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club is a recognized chapter of student affiliates of the American Chemical Society open to all who have completed at least one semester of chemistry. During the year it sponsors several speakers who attempt to supplement the classroom experience as well as provide a deeper insight into those areas of chemistry of special interest to its members. A picnic in the spring then completes the year for the members.

SCALPEL AND PROBE

Biology students can gain additional insight to the practical side of their academic study field through Scalpel and Probe. The club invites contact with persons active in biological and medical endeavors. Field trips to clinical laboratories and hospitals introduce biology members to advanced study and career opportunities in biology and allied fields.

CLASSICS CLUB

Interested students have organized Pi Delta Gamma (Classics Club) recently to stimulate interest in the study of the classical languages and to increase knowledge of the cultures of the ancient Greeks and Romans. The three programs planned for each semester are of an informative nature based upon the scholarly and cultural aspects of both Greece and Rome.

PYRENEES CLUB

The Pyrenees Club, which experienced a new surge of activity this year, has as its aim the stimulation of interest in French and Spanish literature, culture and customs. Membership is open not only to those students majoring in the Romance languages, but also to interested students in other fields of concentration. In working to fulfill its purpose, the club sponsored a welcome party for freshmen, a presentation of slides of Spain, a Christmas program, a celebration of Epiphany and the showing of a foreign film.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club tries to foster enjoyment of the outdoors for all interested students and faculty of Juniata College. Most of its activities center in the area of the college cabin which is located in a wooded area not too far distant from the Raystown Dam. Overnight camping, hiking and nature walks are all part of a program offered for the enjoyment of Juniata students.

LAMBDA GAMMA

Juniata's college club chapter of the Pennsylvania Home Economics Association has tried to show how the home economics expresses creativity. Its members made tray favors for Blair Memorial Hospital and exhibited their original clothing projects at a spring style show. Delegates to area and state conferences learned more about what the state as well as national organizations are doing to make information concerning clothes, foods, child development and family relations more available to the world.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club provides photographically minded J.C.'ers a chance to delve into their hobby with the facilities provided in the basement of the Faculty Club. Members have access to both the studio and darkroom found there. The club recently became affiliated with the Photographic Society of America.

Seated: Peter Mathers, Jean Fields. Standing: Phil Mundock, Bob Mannino, Bill Barnett.

SIGMA PSI

Sigma Psi endeavoured to further interest in the fields of psychology and sociology. It hopes to help the students gain more insight into these fields by consolidation and enrichment of experiences. Some of these experiences included informal discussions with qualified professional people, panel discussions by in-service students and visitations to operational programs in psychology and sociology.

J-CLUB

The Juniata J-Club strives to recognize Juniata Lettermen in all eight varsity sports, by promoting good sportsmanship and stimulating interest in varsity and intramural sports. Activities include publishing the Indian, the Tomahawk, and booster tags, and co-sponsorship with W.R.A. on the Homecoming Dance. Members who have earned two varsity letters, receive J-Jackets. The group is encouraging a mixed IM sports program.

Kneeling: R. Poruban, G. Paris, T. Faber, D. Broadwater, D. Corle, D. Oliver. Standing: S. Dean, J. Reeves, D. Ranck, J. Treese, B. Lloyd, T. Mull, J. Moeller, G. Berrier, L. Mock, D. Detwiler, D. Ruble, D. Rodenbough, B. Crowell, G. Royer.

W.R.A.

The general aim of Women's Recreation Association is to create more interest in women's sports on campus and to provide women with a varied program of athletic activities. This year intramural hockey, basketball, volleyball, tennis and softball provided such opportunity. WRA members also co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance, Horizon, with the J-Club, traveled to Penn State to play basketball and hockey, went swimming at Tyrone and sponsored a spring Sports Day.

The J.C.F. is the Juniata chapter of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, a nation-wide interdenominational student organization. JCF meets to consider the person and work of Jesus Christ, to clarify the importance of a faith relationship with Christ, and to emphasize His relevance to all aspects of life. The weekly fellowship meeting consists of inspirational singing, student presentation and group discussion. The year's programming also included special speakers and movies, banquets and parties.

J.B.S.F.

The J.B.F. is made up of Brethren students and others who are interested in the role of the Christian on campus. JBSF meets every Sunday at 9:30 and holds additional meetings from time to time for discussions, inspiration, and fellowship.

KOINONIA

Koinonia, formerly the Christian Vocation Club, is a group of students planning to enter a Christian vocation. Membership in Koinonia provides the opportunity for systematic inquiry into theology and other related fields. Guest speakers and general discussions are the basis for this inquiry. The name, Koinonia, was derived from the Greek word meaning fellowship.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club, a new organization on campus this semester, owes its formation to the efforts of Harry Knisely and Joe Dedde. Mr. Pedrette, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, and Professor William Merrel and William Shaffer have also contributed their time and efforts in the formation of the club. The club is still in its initial stage of development, but its members intend it to be a service organization once it is running smoothly. It will also provide an opportunity for Episcopalian students to meet informally and discuss religious and secular matters.

Horton, C. Shank, S. Woods, A. Mook.

The Pennsylvania Students' Education Association is a professional organization for those preparing to enter the teaching field. In order to acquaint students with the field of education the club sponsors monthly meetings, films, panel discussions, guest speakers, and a Halloween party.

DEPUTATION CLUB

Seated: Dotty Horton, Doris Fluke, Norma Kinard, Lona Grim, Kathy Lehigh. Standing: Kay Larsen, Susan Habecker, Barb Heyerhoff, Barry Halbritter, Gerry Zwick, Doris Morton.

The students of the Deputation Club provide leadership for worship services and an introduction to Juniata College in churches throughout Pennsylvania. It also gives Juniata students an opportunity to talk with college-bound students in these various churches.

TOURING CHOIR

Traveling throughout Pennsylvania and neighboring states, the College Choir, under the direction of Professor Donald Johnson, annually represents Juniata as a talented and active campus organization. Between semesters the choir made an eleven-day tour to the Pittsburgh area and eastern Ohio, presenting concerts in schools and churches and on television and radio. During the spring the group made five shorter trips to Pennsylvania communities. Special events in this year's program included the combined concerts with the Elizabethtown College Choir and the Susquehanna University Choir. Officers this year were George Klingman, Jud Kimmel, Joy Papoutsis, Judy Shopf, Larry Ross, and Sue Judy.

CHAPEL CHOIR

The Juniata Marching Band

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Hishman, the Juniata College Marching Band has taken great strides in its 1962 performance season. Membership has more than doubled, with each student contributing to a general spirit of enthusiasm. In its half time football exhibitions, the band has strived for

Faith Bridegam and Sandy Warren

May Queen and Prince Charming

May Day Queen Faith Bridegam reigned over the annual festivities in 1962 which were based on an old southern theme. Sandy Warren was Prince Charming and Elanie Spencer was the Maid of Honor. The attendants were Pauline Nagao, Audrey Wadsworth, Lynnea Knavel, Vicki Lanning, Marian Kercher, Jan Peters, Sandy Haines and Carole Patterson. The Class of 63 presented the Plantation Promenade in Oneida Dining Hall in the evening to complete the celebration.

Lynnea Knavel
Homecoming Queen

Homecoming, 1962, was the 41st celebration of the weekend of memories. Miss Lynnea Knavel reigned over the festivities as Homecoming Queen, together with senior attendant Judy Shopf and junior attendant Sally Barcklow. The JC Indians displayed their force against the Wilkes football team, copping a 21-14 victory. During halftime, the class and club floats were judged, and the junior class float, Peace Through Knowledge, won first prize. In the evening, the WRA and J-Club presented the annual Homecoming Dance, Horizons, in Memorial Gym. The weekend drew to a close with an All College Worship Service in Oller Hall Sunday morning

As Coach Ken Bunn put it, "This was my most interesting year at Juniata." Every game had suspense, drama, surprises, and, of course, courage. In the season opener a brilliant performance against a new opponent, Trenton State, gave the Indians a morale-building 44-0 victory and a hopeful outlook for a return to M.A.C. prominence. Then disaster struck as the Indians ran into some hard luck, losing two heartbreakers to Moravian and Indiana State. It's past history now, but few will forget the manner in which the Indians roared back to win five straight exciting football games from Geneva, Wilkes, Hampton Institute, Albright, and Westminster. All this in spite of major injuries to such vital linemen as Bill Crowell and Pete Marzio (neither of which played the last three games) and the thinnest bench in post-war years (only 29 men dressed for Westminster).

Throughout the season coach Bunn and his associates (Bill Berrier, the tribes former Little All-American fullback and first year line coach and hardworking Ernie Post, backfield coach) kept two thoughts in mind . . . work hard on fundamentals and stick together. "That's what helped to bring us back," observed Coach Bunn; particularly the "togetherness."

Among the players, themselves, Ron (Peewee) Poruban gained the outstanding distinction of shattering three records and accounting for 1,077 yards in total offense. In doing so, the 5 foot 7 inch passing wizard from Portage became the second senior quarterback in Juniata Football history to exceed 1,000 yards in a single season. Pat Tarquinio, now coach at Ellwood City, Pa., had 1,351 yards in nine games for 1955's undefeated Tangerine Bowl team. Pourban, who completed 42 of 82 passes for 815 yards and 10 touchdowns, broke Tarquinio's career mark in passes completed and passing yardage. In four seasons Ron completed 112 passes for 1,990 yards to pass Tarquinio's 94 for 1,797 yards. In addition, the former Beaverdale passer chalked up a single game passing mark of 243 yards in a losing cause at Indiana State.

Grey Berrier shared honors with Poruban by leading in scoring, pass receiving, and punting. He tallied 32 points, caught 17 passes for 279 yards, including five touchdowns, and averaged a highly respectable 36.2 yards in 33 punts to get the tribe out of many tight situations. Vince Valicenti's 30 point season will make him a long remembered favorite among JC rooters.

Next year the team will undoubtedly miss the nine departing seniors who performed so outstandingly all season, but the returning host of underclassmen should fill the gap quite well. Standouts like Crowell, Marzio, Jeff Treese, Duane Ruble, Berrier, and many others with considerable experience should make 1963 a good bet for the Indians to capture the M.A.C. title.

Mike Snider's harriers began the 1962 season hoping to start where they left off last year, by making this their sixth undefeated season. It appeared that the squad of six returning lettermen and a host of new candidates could easily do the job, even against two new and difficult rivals, Geneva and West Chester.

The opener against Moravian turned into an easy 15-50 sweep for the fleet-footed Indians, and a rerun of past seasons seemed to be underway. The team roared ahead, extending its victory string to thirty-eight straight by blanking E-town, Susquehanna, and the first of the new opponents, Geneva. Then, on November 3 the fabulous string was broken as the Tribe went down before a powerful squad from West Chester. The end of the string, however, did not prevent the spirited group from finishing the season in grandiose style, easily defeating Franklin and Marshall and Albright. Juniata's amazing seven-year cross-country record under the veteran Snider, now shows 43 victories and only 2 defeats.

Led by senior co-captain Bob Berthold from Paterson, N. J., and his sophomore running mate, Earl Samuel, co-captain from Johnstown, the Indians went to Cobb Creek in Philadelphia to compete in the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship. Samuel took a 10th place and the Tribe on the whole could do no better than 8th in the fast field. Bill Chew, Swedesboro, N. J., was 33rd and the workhorse, Berthold, had a bad day finishing 39th.

Berty, who really came into his own this year, winning four, taking two seconds, and placing third in the lone defeat, will be sorely missed next season. But, just as in years before, a promising group of underclassmen, led by Samuel, who pushed Berthold all year, will be coming on to keep Juniata in the thick of cross-country competition.

In 1963 the Indian courtmen closed out the season's record with eight wins and ten defeats, quite an improvement over the two previous seasons. The Tribe's final statistics speak for themselves in describing the tremendously improved performance. Averaging 64 points per game as opposed to an average of 68.7 for their foes, Coach Ralph Harden's charges provided many and varied thrills for near-capacity crowds throughout the 18-game season. The strongest point in the Indian offense was shown at the foul line where JC scored 689 points, forty more than the opposition. Shooting at a 36.7 percentage from the floor, the Tribe had a 69 percent showing from the charity stripe. All opponents combined registered 65 percent in foul shooting.

Leading the squad in three departments was 6'4" center Leroy Mock. He scored the most points for the season (314), had the highest game average (15.2), and pulled down the top number of rebounds with a very creditable 274. Leroy's rebounding mark was second in the MAC. Bob Hollein and Pat Frazier followed with 14.1 and 8.1 respectively. Frazier, the lone senior on the squad, had the best individual foul-shooting percentage with 74.4 over the entire season.

"JC basketball has been lifted out of the doldrums by this young and growing team. They've replaced pessimism with optimism and a faith in each other," says Coach Harden. This great change brought about excellent basketball throughout the season and was highlighted in three big upsets and a near miss by the Tribe. Few fans will ever forget the night they screamed the Indians to a 75-64 upset over a completely stunned Shippensburg team which had been favored by 19 points. The following week, as underdogs by fifteen points, the Indians showed brilliant ball control and an unrivaled desire to win as they upset longtime and powerful rival Albright, 55-53. After a near-victory over top-rated Scranton the Indians played .500 ball until the most exciting game of the entire season, Juniata vs Elizabethtown. The E-town Blue Jays invaded JC's quite confident that they would duplicate their earlier season victory over the Tribe at E-town. It was a sad-looking, stunned team that left the court after the same amazing group of ballplayers had beaten them, 68-67. Of all the games of the entire season, none will be as long-remembered or appreciated than this one. All skeptics should have been quieted forever on the question of whether or not "desire" wins ball games.

Although the E-town conquest was the last win of the season, the Tribe was not finished with its display of smooth, exciting basketball. In the closing game the Indians went down to defeat at the hands of Rider, one of the top teams in the East, by a 70-62 score, in what many considered to be the finest game played by the "Big White" all season. It was indicative of what should be in store for fans of next year's Tribe, as the loss of senior Pat Frazier will certainly be a severe blow, but not one which cannot be overcome with four of this year's starters being underclassmen, 3 sophomores and one junior.

The Indian matmen ran into so tough competition in 1962-63, but came up with three solid victories as opposed to six defeats. Following a very interesting match with Dickinson, in which Duane Ruble set his pattern for the season, the Tribe ran into perennial mat power, Lycoming. Here again, Ruble was outstanding in avoiding a complete shutout. As the season progressed, Bill Berrier's charges won impressively over St. Francis and very decisively over Lebanon Valley to avenge a heartbreaking 14-13 loss last season. Two squeakers, 14-17 to Indiana and 15-17 to Albright may well be reversed next year.

Throughout the season powerful sophomore, Duane Ruble provided an anchor for the Indians. While scoring many impressive triumphs to post an eight and one record, Duane will be long-remembered for his dramatic pin of the gigantic heavyweight from Lebanon Valley. In the MAC tournament Ruble created a formidable image when he gained a berth in the semi-finals, losing at that point on a decision.

Still in the building process, the JC track and field men improved last year's record finishing with two firsts. Always powerful Lock Haven fell before the Tribe in the season's opener. Losses to Gettysburg and Shippensburg followed before the Indians took a second in a triangular meet with Bucknell and Lycoming. The second triangular meet saw Mike Snider's charges score a near first place as they were edged out by PMC. A decisive victory over Susquehanna and a heartbreaking loss to Albright closed out the regular season.

Standouts on the cinderpaths were: senior, Terry Digruttolo, who ran the 100 yd. dash, Earl Samuel, freshman sensation in the 2-mile run, Rob Gardner, who, as a junior, is probably the best 440 yd. run-man ever to come to College Hill, and freshman surprise, Bill Baker, who did a very fine job on the hurdles. These four garnered over 40 points apiece as they always represented key factors in the Tribe's attack.

Always dependable Bob Berthold performed steadily in the 880 yd. run and the mile run to gain the fifth high scoring position with 26½ points. Also aiding the cause with totals right behind Berty's were Senior Al Beech, throwing the javelin, another senior, Al Zalnasky, heaving the shot, and sophomore, Al Goldstrohm in the high jump. All three tallied over 20 points each.

JC track enthusiasts can look for track to grow again in '63 with the return of many of 1962's standouts. With the addition of a few talented freshmen, coach Snider may soon come up with a formidable squad to send out on the new oval to be constructed around the football field.

With five of the starting six men returning, plus the addition of two other experienced netmen, Pete Cristie and Jack Latshaw, the JC racket squad produced a strong season, winning five in a row as opposed to only three setbacks. The nucleus of the team was to be found in the one-two punch of Stan Conner and Chick Weist. These two had identical 6-2 records to pace the Tribe all season long. Seniors Mike Pentz and John Latshaw filled in the number three and four spots quite well as they broke even on their won-lost records. Rounding out the fifth and sixth positions were Dave Rodenbaugh and Dick Henry, underclassmen whose experience should help the charges of Coach Ernie Post this spring. Overall the entire squad provided one of the toughest doubles competition of all teams in the MAC.

After a rainout to begin the season, the Indians began a string of victories with a decisive win over Indiana State College. Four other victories followed this including a complete shutout of Delaware Valley. The meeting with Dickinson, a complete reversal of the previous outing seemed to throw a cog into the wheels of the tennis machine as the charges of Ernie Post lost two more to finish out a season that was, however, anything but unsuccessful.

Tennis hopes for this Spring center around Dick Henry and Dave Rodenbaugh, and a number of freshmen that Coach Post hopes to have out for his net team. A repeat of last year seems to be quite a bit to ask for, especially with the loss of such an outstanding performer as captain and outstanding award winner, Stan Conner. However, as with all JC teams, the Indians will be out there giving it their best.

GOLF 1962

Juniata's fairway-trampers had a somewhat disappointing season in 1962. The golf team seemed to be off to a fairly good start with victories over Albright and Susquehanna, after a defeat in the opener with Dickinson. But, this did not prove to be the trend as the Tribe went on to gain only one more tally in the win column, a sound beating of Shippensburg.

Coach Bill Germann will lose regulars Gary Eichmann, Ray Erney, Joe Longacre and Dick Santucci, but outstanding award winner Stan Dudzinski of McKees Rocks and Dan Ranck, sophomore from Barnesboro, will return to form the nucleus of a squad which will have to boast a large number of freshmen.

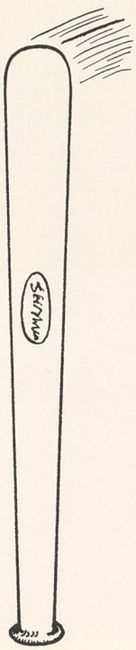
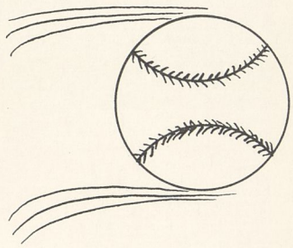
Through the rebuilding process after the loss of some of the finest baseball talent ever seen on College Hill in June of 1960, the Indians appeared to have the makings of a real powerhouse in 1962. Without a doubt the Tribe showed the lumber at the plate but ran into a little tough luck on the mound, and managed to break even, winning a misleading 5 out of ten contests. This record saved J.C. baseball from a losing season, but at first it might appear to be something of a disappointment after 1961's record of 6 wins and 4 losses. The truth of the matter is that, once again, as has always been the case with baseball here at Juniata, the team lost some reak squeakers and pitchers' duels.

The Indians took off in their opener with Shippensburg which was a romp, to say the least. Fans hoped that this was prophetic of the games to come as the Tribe pushed across sixteen runs, a record that is bound to stand for some time. Defeat then came on the scene with a very close one lost to Upsala and an embarrassing loss to an extremely powerful Albright squad. The Indians then seemed to regain their form with an 11 to 5 breeze over Susquehanna, only to have the tables turned 6 to 2 in the very next encounter with the diamondmen from Selinsgrove. In games following, Coach Bunn's squad looked very strong in victories over Indiana and Dickinson, and did very well indeed although they came out on the short end of squeakers with E-town and Lock Haven. A well-deserved victory over Lycoming closed out the season.

Five regulars finished the season over the .300 mark, as the Tribe posted an amazing .329 team batting average.





Juniata's one-two punch—Tony Faber, a junior from Aliquippa who can play almost any position, set a sizzling pace in batting to lead the Juniata College Indians in their 1962 season with a lofty .556 average; and a freshman righthander from Wyandanch, N. Y., Rich Beck, won three games without a loss to become a welcome addition to the tribe's mound corps.

Tony Faber captured the MAC crown "going away" with a phenomenal .640 average in seven games. Starting the season as a utility infielder, Faber played all four positions assigned by Coach Bunn and slammed 20 hits in 36 trips to the plate in 10 games. He also led in total bases with 27 and batted in 7 runs.

Husky Grey Berrier slid off a little in his slugging average but continued to function admirably as the team backstop, demonstrating a fine arm and alert defensive ability coupled with a new-found talent—Grey scampered around the diamond to chalk up a team-leading mark of 12 stolen bases.

Seasoned veterans, Allen "Duke" Snyder and Stan "Sweets" Hallman, handed in brilliant performances. Duke's circus catches in center field brought the crowds to their feet on many occasions. Hallman played his usual flawless game around first base and batted a hefty .375 with two home runs to his credit. Along with Berrier (.386) and Snyder (.424), J. C. Day, a mainstay in left field, was over the .300 mark with .306.

Senior John Mullen posted the best E.R.A. with a very low 2.16. He and freshman Rich Beck accounted for all five victories in '62.

With such valuable men as Randy Pletcher, Ron Veit, and most of the above-mentioned returning, Juniata's baseball prospects look extremely bright for '63.
